

Who is Walter Anderson?

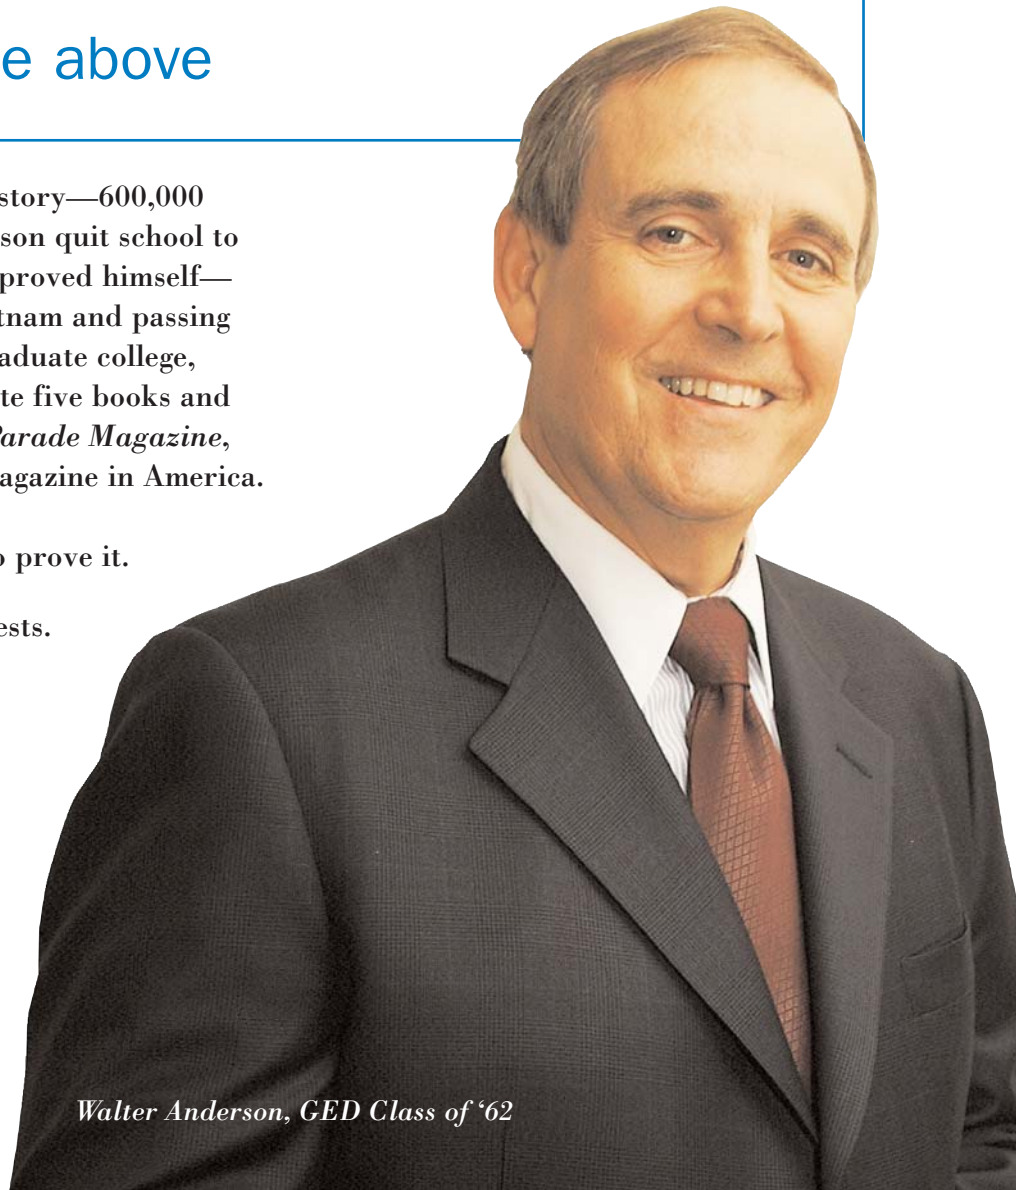

- ① Journalist
- ② Author
- ③ Chairman & CEO, Parade Publications
- ④ GED graduate, North Carolina
- All of the above

Every person with a GED has a story—600,000 new stories a year. Walter Anderson quit school to join the Marine Corps. Then he proved himself—rising to sergeant, serving in Vietnam and passing the GED Tests. He went on to graduate college, forge a career in journalism, write five books and become Chairman and CEO of Parade Magazine, the largest circulating Sunday magazine in America.

Mature. Motivated. And ready to prove it.

The people who pass the GED Tests.

GED
prove yourself.
